AN ORDINANCE to amend sections 1 and 2 of chapter 75 of the Revised Ordinances of 1890.

It is hereby ordained by the people of the city of Detroit, section 1. That sections 1 and 2 of chapter 75 of the Revised Ordinances of 1890 be and the same are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. The business of weighing produce, meat by the quarter, provisions and such other articles as are brought to the Central Market or the Eastern Market for sale by wagon or other conveyance, shall be done by persons who shall be designated by the Committee on Markets and Controlled and approved by the Common Council, and each of whom shall be licensed at twenty-five ($25) dollars per annum, payable in advance. They shall enter into a bond in the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars each, with one or more good and sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of their duties, and the strict observance of the rules and ordinances governing the market. They shall each provide himself at his own private expense, with a good portable platform scale duly approved by the sealer of weights and measures, and they shall receive such fees for weighing as may be fixed by the Common Council. They shall be subject to the rules, regulations and penalties applicable to persons renting stalls and stands in said markets, and all other rules governing said markets now in force or which may hereafter be adopted and published.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall follow the business of weighing produce, meat, provisions, and such other articles as are brought to the Central Market or the Eastern Market, for sale by wagon or other conveyance, without complying with the provisions of this ordinance, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, and the court may sentence the offender to be imprisoned in the Detroit House of Correction until such fine and costs are paid; Provided, however, That the term of such imprisonment shall not exceed the period of six months.

Sec 3. This ordinance shall take immediate effect.
