FROM THE SAME.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on Claims and Accounts to whom was referred the petition of Eva C. Bressler and W. E. Metzger, administrators of the estate of Jos. M. Bressler, deceased, asking for payment of award rendered in the matter of widening Jefferson avenue, respectfully report that we have had the matter under consideration and beg leave to state that the estate of Jos. M. Bressler was in the year 1904 and still is the owner of certain land situated in the village of Fairview, described as "All that part of the west half of P. C. 387 lying between Jefferson avenue and a line 40 feet northerly of the margin of the Detroit river"; that in 1904 proceedings were instituted by the village of Fairview to condemn a portion of said land lying adjacent to Jefferson avenue for the purpose of widening said thoroughfare; that a jury was duly summoned to pass upon the necessity of taking said land and that said jury in due course of time brought in an award which was duly confirmed by the Justice of the Peace which said award covered the following described property: "Part of P. C. 387, Grosse Pointe, Wayne Co. described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the southerly line of Jefferson avenue with the westerly
