FROM THE SAME.

To the Honorable the Common Council: Gentlemen—Your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the communication from the Poor Commission, requesting authority to employ an additional inspector for the remainder of the present fiscal year, respectfully report that we have had the same under consideration and beg leave to state that the Poor Commission desires to engage the services of a competent man as special inspector to investigate the welfare and condition of such families as are now dependable upon the Poor Commission for support by following up each case and among his duties would be the supervision and care of the children of the many widows who are dependent upon the city for support, in procuring for said children when they arrived at working age, positions in which they could develop and progress; the securing of suitable and profitable work for the mothers; the following up of non-support and similar domestic difficulties, which the commission believes, if judiciously handled, would frequently result in not only the mending of many broken families, but provide an income for the members of the families and thereby lessen the expense upon the department. Your committee are heartily in accord with the purpose of the Poor Commission and believe that the money appropriated for such a purpose will be well expended and we therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

Respectfully submitted,
THOS. E. GLINNAN,
ALBERT T. ALLAN,
JOHN C. LODGE,
A. J. WALSH,
WM. KOENIG,
JOHN C. GARVEY,

Accepted, and on leave, the following resolution was offered:

By Ald. Glinnan:
