Gentlemen—In the budget for 1925-26 we requested an appropriation under 5-A—Salaries, of 18 skilled foremen at $2,400 each, or a total of $43,200.

We respectfully request a correction in this appropriation to the following:

One skilled foreman at $2,040 a year.

Five skilled foremen at $2,220 a year.

Twelve skilled foremen at $2,400 a year.

Or a total of $41,940. Thanking you.

Yours very truly,

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—On June 27, 1925, there was referred to this Bureau, by your Honorable Body, a communication from the Superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, requesting a new set-up for the eighteen skilled foremen, now appearing in their budget, under Account 5-A.

The communication requests the privilege to pay, in certain cases, less than the appropriated amount and this Bureau is pleased to concur therein.

This does not represent a decrease in salary, as a number of these foremen have been receiving less than the appropriated amount.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. CURRAN,
Budget Director.
