material such as cement and gravel from the Department of Public Works which they subsequently billed us for.

We have no record that payment was ever made for this material and at the present time have no available funds from which payment can be made.

We have been advised by the Budget Bureau to petition your honorable body for a transfer of funds, namely, from General Surplus to such an account in the Motor Transportation Fund out of which payment of an amount of $268.53 may be made.

Yours respectfully,
FRANK OLDFIELD,
Superintendent.

By Councilman Ewald:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the sum of $268.53 from General Surplus to an account in the Motor Transportation fund, such amount to be used for the payment of Accounts Receivable due the Department of Public Works.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Councilmen Bradley, Broderick, Castator, Dingeman, Ewald, Nagel, Stevenson, and the President—8.
