From the Board of Education.

July 26, 1926.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

Gentlemen—The Board of Education recently considered a communication received from the Department of Public Works that the building at Sixth and Abbot streets, old Houghton School site, will no longer be used by them. This building can be utilized by the Board at this time for accommodation of trade classes in the Continuation Department.

In discussing the alterations necessary to the building, the Board of Education at the meeting held July 22nd last took action to the effect that your Honorable Body be requested to deed back to the Board the old Houghton School site and improvements thereto, located on the southwest corner of Sixth and Abbot streets, 125x130 feet, which site was deeded to the City of Detroit in 1914.

As directed by the Board, I am requesting your Honorable Body to consider this matter and trust that prompt and favorable action will be taken, for which the Board extends thanks in advance.

Yours respectfully,

H. L. REEVES,
Asst. Secretary.

By Councilman Ewald:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to execute Warranty Deed in favor of the Board of Education of the City of Detroit for the following described property:
