To the Honorable, the Common Council:
April 5, 1927.

Gentlemen—I beg to advise your Honorable Body that I am in receipt of the following communication from Michigan National Guard, 107th Observation Squadron.

Respectfully submitted,
RICHARD W. READING,
City Clerk.

Following is the communication referred to:

MICHIGAN NATIONAL GUARD
107th Observation Squadron
River Rouge Park, March 28, 1927.
The Honorable John C. Lodge,
Pres. Common Council.

My Dear Councilman—It has been brought to my attention that a petition recently presented to the Common Council asking that that Body purchase the Air Craft Development Co.'s Grosse Isle property for a Municipal Airport stated that the 107th Observation Squadron was among the aviation organizations that was unanimously in favor of such a purchase.

I wish to correct this erroneous statement. The writer together with four other officers of this squadron were present at this meeting at which this petition was drawn, but not one favored same or voted for its adoption. In face of the strength of those favoring the resolution we did not attempt to offer argument, inas-
