To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—In connection with the preparation of plans for a hangar at the Municipal Airport, it was deemed advisable to have two members of the Engineer's staff, visit the Cleveland Airport and inspect the new hangars and equipment at that location, as an aid in determining certain problems relative to plans now in progress for this type of improvement at the Detroit Airport.

Expense incurred amounted to $73.00. I respectfully request your Honorable Body's approval of the same.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN W. REID,
 Commissioner.
