

damages for riparian rights. Under this plan, the lot owners would undoubtedly try to use the channel and request to construct boat wells. This might develop unforeseen complications or a repetition of the flood as occurred in the area in 1929.

If your Honorable Body considers it advisable, appraisals will be obtained and hearings held in order to obtain more definite information.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL T. ANDERSON,
MARTIN R. FISHER,
THOS. M. CORCORAN.

From the Condemnation Commission

December 19, 1930.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—On Nov. 7th, we addressed a communication to Your Honorable Body relative to Fox Creek Improvement, south of Jefferson Avenue. Your Honorable Body referred this communication to the Corporation Counsel requesting an opinion whether the amendment to the State Constitution submitted to the voters. Nov. 4th, relative to the authorization of the State to improve or assist in improving rivers and streams, had any bearing on this improvement.

We are in receipt of a copy of the letter addressed to Your Honorable Body from the Corporation Counsel, part of which letter we quote as follows:

"We beg to advise that we are in receipt of a communication from Hon. John S. Haggerty, Secretary of State, to the effect that this amendment to the State Constitution was defeated at the polls, Nov. 4th."

In our report, we stated, "If Your Honorable Body considers it advisable, appraisals will be obtained and hearings held in order to obtain more definite information."

In view of the above, we wish to be informed whether or not Your Honorable Body desires the Commission to proceed further with the project.

Respectfully,

PAUL T. ANDERSON,
MARTIN R. FISHER,
T. M. CORCORAN,
Chairman.

By Councilman Callahan:
