From the City Plan Commission

October 19, 1937.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—In accordance with the request of your Honorable Body the City Plan Commission has made a careful study as to advisability of changing the name of some important Highway to James Couzens Highway in honor of the late Senator James Couzens. As a result of this study, it is the opinion of the City Plan Commission that the changing of the name of Northwestern Highway would be especially appropriate because of its proximity to Mr. Couzens' housing development in Oakland County, and further that it now constitutes a duplication because of the existence of Northwestern Avenue in the City of Detroit. We have contacted the State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner, and he is heartily in accord with the proposed change. The City Plan Commission therefore recommends that the name of Northwestern Highway from Wyoming Avenue to the Eight Mile Road be changed to "James Couzens Highway."

Respectfully submitted,
HERBERT L. RUSSELL,
Secretary.

By Councilman Kronk:

Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and he is hereby directed to prepare the necessary ordinance to change the name of Northwestern Highway from Wyoming Ave. to the Eight Mile Road to James Couzens Highway, and submit same to this body for approval.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Councilmen Bradley, Ewald, Jeffries, Kronk, Lodge, Van Antwerp, and the President Pro Tem.—7.
