

of the Department of Public Works and our observance of the flow of work procedures, we are of the opinion that an administrative assistant should be employed by the Department of Public Works to coordinate, under the direction of the Commissioner the administrative activities of the department. We offer this suggestion at this time for consideration of your Honorable Body, the Mayor and the Commissioner of Public Works.

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. ENGEL,
 Auditor General.

By Councilman Van Antwerp:

Resolved, That the foregoing recommendations of the Auditor General be and the same are hereby approved with the exception of Recommendation No. 11, pertaining to the employment of an administrative assistant, and the Department of Public Works and City Controller be and they are hereby instructed to carry out the said recommendations.

Adopted as follows:
