

By Councilman Comstock:

Whereas, municipal employees have been in the past and will continue in an ever increasing manner to aid their country in the purchase of Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds and in every other manner possible; and

Whereas, the Executive Committee in charge of the sale of these bonds and stamps has requested that the same be readily available for purchase by city employees; and

Whereas, the Auditor General and the Controller have agreed that in any audit of petty cash funds, Defense Stamps will be considered as assets comparable to cash; now, therefore, be it

Resolved that every department of the City Government having a petty cash or change fund be and they are hereby authorized and directed to invest such portion of such funds as each department may deem advisable in Defense Savings Stamps for sale to the employees of the department. Approved as to form:

JOHN H. WITHERSPOON,
Acting Corporation Counsel.
