From Detroit Housing Commission

April 17, 1942.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Re: Brightmoor Project (Mich. 1-6) (Vacation of Streets and Alleys).

Attached hereto you will find a blue print of a site plan of the Brightmoor Low Rent Housing Project, the actual site of the project being bounded by the heavy line. Attention is called to the dead-end portion of Acacia Avenue which extends east into the site from Kentfield Avenue.

Since this extension of Acacia Avenue is entirely within the project site and is of no possible use to the project as a street, your Honorable Body is requested to vacate same and dedicate the land to the Detroit Housing Commission for incorporation in the project site.

Sincerely yours,

CHAS. F. EDGECOMB,
Director-Secretary.

City Plan Commission

May 1, 1942.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

We are returning, herewith, the petition of the Detroit Housing Commission requesting the vacation of Acacia Avenue, which lies within the confines of the Brightmoor Housing Site.

Some time ago the Site Plan for this Project was submitted to the City Plan Commission by the Detroit Housing Commission for approval. At that time this Commission approved the vacation of Acacia Avenue, and also a portion of the east and west public alley lying south of Lyndon Avenue and east of Kentfield Avenue provided the Housing Commission set aside sufficient land to provide for the widths of Lyndon and Evergreen Avenues, as shown on our Master Plan of Thoroughfares. This plan shows an 86 ft. width for Lyndon Avenue and 120 feet for Evergreen Avenue.

The City Plan Commission therefore recommends that Acacia Avenue easterly of Kentfield Avenue and the public alley lying southerly of lots 128 and 129 be vacated, provided the Detroit Housing Commission deeds to the City of Detroit, for street purposes, 43 feet of the northerly end of their Site for Lyndon Avenue and 27 feet of the easterly end of their Site for Evergreen Avenue, as shown on Plan No. 600-247.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. F. EMERY,
Secretary.
