Gentlemen—This is to advise your honorable body that I am in receipt of the following communication from the J. L. Hudson Co.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS D. LEADBETTER,
City Clerk.

The J. L. Hudson Company

December 11, 1945.

Mr. Thomas D. Leadbetter,
City Clerk.

My dear Mr. Leadbetter:

You have called my attention to the action of the Detroit Common Council in adopting unanimously a resolution commending our company for its success in the sale of war bonds. As you know, the combined efforts of a very substantial segment of our employees contributed in a large measure to whatever success we have attained, and it is to them that full credit should go.

May I, on behalf of The J. L. Hudson Company and employees, express to you and through you to the Detroit Common Council, our sincere appreciation of the action taken in respect to this record.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES B. WEBBER, JR.,
Vice-President.

Received and placed on file.
