

on Sundays and Holidays, except in the spaces which have been regularly rented to stall renters and buyers.

The following rental rates are respectfully recommended for your consideration and approval:

For vehicles under 30 ft. in length, $7.50 per month; $2.50 per week, or fraction thereof.

For vehicles over 30 ft. in length, $15.00 per month; $5.00 per week, or fraction thereof.

When feasible, rentals may be reduced and collected for three and six month periods with the following rates to apply:

For vehicles under 30 ft. in length, $20.00 each 3 month period; $35.00 each 6 month period.

For vehicles over 30 ft. in length, $40.00 each 3 month period; $70.00 each 6 month period.

In order that all parking regulations on the Eastern Market may be uniform as they are now at the Western Market it also is respectfully recommended that the parking on all Eastern Market property, bounded by Alfred, Russell, Vernor Highway, Market and Riopelle Streets, be controlled by signs stating, "Two Hour Parking 6 A. M. to 6 P. M., except numbered spaces in lot are reserved from 3 A. M. to 6 A. M., May 1st to December 1st; No Standing Under Shed;" Provided, that this regulation shall not apply to a stall renter or to a dealer who parks his vehicle in the area or stall space assigned or rented to him by the Bureau of Markets.

The Bureau of Markets on May 15, 1956, notified, by letter, 170 merchants within a block of the Eastern Market of this new parking plan with an invitation for their thoughts and comments. No adverse comment has been received to date. Several business men have indicated their desire to rent parking space when the plan becomes effective. A sample copy of the letter mailed to merchants in the Eastern Market District is attached hereto.

Authority for such policy of charging fees to park on Market Property is in Section 18, Paragraph D, Public Markets Ordinance No. 751-E, Chapter 215, Municipal Code, City of Detroit, 1954.

Respectfully submitted,
F. C. SMITH,
Supervisor of Markets.

Approved:
HAZEN L. FUNK, Commissioner.
J. S. WITHERSPOON, Controller.
