Gentlemen—This office retained the law firm of McLaughlin, Stickles & Hayden (now called Stickles, Hayden, Young & Kennedy) of New York, New York, to handle the collection of the 1950 personal property taxes assessed to Film Classics Inc., 1440 Broadway, New York, New York, in the amount of $1,145.64, exclusive of accrued interest. They agreed to handle our tax claim on the usual fee basis of 25% of the amount collected without suit or 33-1/3% of the amount collected after suit.

After ascertaining that the subject taxpayer had executed an Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors on June 29, 1950, our attorneys filed a formal Proof of Claim for the aforescribed taxes with the assignee appointed by the Court. On May 16, 1957, our attorneys forwarded a dividend check in the amount of $57.28, which was applied on account of the subject taxes. On October 14, 1959, this office received a final dividend in the amount of $38.25.

We are now in receipt of a statement for professional services rendered on our behalf in the amount of $20.00, which sum is less than 25% of the dividends received. It is the recommendation of this office, in which the City Treasurer has concurred, that the fees requested in the amount of $20.00 be paid.
