Honorable Common Council:

Gentlemen —The City Plan Commission letter dated May 26, 1966, recommending the sale of City-owned property at the southeast corner of Lycaste and Freud to the City Car Releasing Co., further recommended that the northerly 60 feet of the property be retained for street purposes. The recommendations were approved by your Honorable Body on May 31, 1966, J.C.C. pages 1527-28.

For the purpose of assigning jurisdiction of the said 60 feet to the appropriate City Department, we have prepared the attached resolution for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

BERNARD W. KLEIN,

Controller.

Honorable Common Council:

Comprehensive Transportation and

and ;

Land Use Program for the Detroit Region—Phases II to V. Gentlemen—On May 25, 1966,

Your Honorable Body approved a "Memorandum of Understanding" whereby the City of Detroit and the Michigan Highway Department jointly and mutually agreed to cooperate in a comprehensive transportation planning process for the Six-County Area, made up of Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw, St. Clair, Monroes and Wayne counties.

At the same time an expenditure of $63,000 was authorized to aid in financing Phase I of the "Comprehensive Transportation and Land Use Program for the Detroit Region" detailed in or developed from the "Study Design" for the Program by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission dated October, 1964 a copy of which is on file with the City Clerk.

The Transportation and Land Use Study, TALUS, has now prepared an allocation of costs for Phases II through V totaling $410,000., Detroit's share is $68,019 distributed over three years as follows: 1966-67-$34,690; 1967-68-$22,446; and 1968-69 — $10,883. Funds are available for this year's contribution in Account 167-8090-383, Comprehensive Traffic Study.

To complete the financial planning for this Study, approval of Your Honorable Body is herewith sought for an expenditure of Detroit's share of the program as shown above.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER I. STECHER,

Budget Director.

Approved:

B. W. KLEIN,

Controller.
