March 18, 1968

Honorable Common Council:

Gentlemen — At its meeting of February 27, 1968, the Civil Service Commission concurred in the recommendation of the Classification Division that a position of Principal Clerk be allocated to the classification of Head Clerk for the duration of the present incumbent.

The recommendation was based on the unique duties presently performed by the incumbent which are quasi-legal in nature and are not the normal responsibilities contemplated by the classification of Principal Clerk.
