To the Honorable the Common Council:

Gentlemen—We respectfully call your attention to a rescinding resolution, adopted May 2, 1912, (J. C. C. Page 770) rescinding the resolution offered by Ald. Vernor, on March 19, 1912, (J. C. C. Page 365). This resolution is illegal, as the petitioners had complied with the resolution of March 19, 1912, this statement can be verified by reference to the City Controller's books. We therefore request your honorable body to take such action as will enable us to place on the tax rolls for assessment purposes that parcel of land formerly known as Tonti street.

Respectfully submitted,
 BOARD OF ASSESSORS,
 By JOHN KOHLER,
 President.
