RESOLUTIONS AND ORDINANCES.

By Councilman Broderick:

Whereas, A nation wide campaign has been inaugurated through an appeal of Major General Henry T. Allen, Commander of the American Army of Occupation in the World War, for the amelioration of approximately 6 000,000 German children who are suffering for the necessities of life and in dire need of immediate relief, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Common Council, representing the citizens of Detroit, heartily approves of the intensive and humanitarian campaign that has been instituted throughout the United States, especially by the military organizations that participated in the war, thus exemplifying in no uncertain manner that the bitterness and enmity engendered
