Office of Civilian Defense

September 28, 1942.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—The program of the forty-seventh annual meeting of the International Municipal Signal Association to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., October 4-7th inclusive, is devoted exclusively to Civilian Defense, with particular emphasis on warning and communication problems.

We are very desirous of having Inspector E. C. Denstaedt, who has supervised the development and operation of our Civilian Defense Control Room and Communications System, attend this meeting in order to participate in the national exchange of experiences and anticipated future problems.

Will your Honorable Body kindly authorize an expenditure, not to exceed one hundred ($100.00) dollars to be charged to our account 1-J-1, Traveling Expenses, to cover expense of this trip.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. McLAURY,
Director.

Approved:

C. G. OAKMAN,
Controller.

E. J. JEFFRIES, JR.,
Mayor.

By Councilman Dorais:
