Garbage Collection

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—To your Committee of the Whole was referred report of the Commissioner of Public Works of December 23, 1942 (J. C. C., p. 3351, December 29, 1942), relative to recommendations of the Special Garbage Investigation Committee of the Common Council. After consideration of the report, your committee concurs, at this time, in the recommendations Nos. 1 and 2 relative to an educational program, and recommends that the President of the Common Council appoint a committee composed of the Commissioner of Public Works, the Superintendent of Schools and a representative of the citizenry to formulate an educational program as to the proper method of handling garbage by the householder, this program to be applicable to the school children and the rest of the community, this committee to submit recommendations to the Common Council.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. E. DORAIS,
 Chairman.

Accepted and adopted.
