RESOLUTIONS

By Councilman Rogell:

Resolved, That John McLeod, 3058 Sixteenth St., be and he is hereby appointed constable, 10th ward, to succeed Louis Raizin, deceased, he being a suitable person to discharge the duties of this office.

Adopted as follows:
Yeas,—Councilmen Castator, Cody, Rogell, Sweeny, Van Antwerp, and the President—6.
Nays—None.

By Councilman Van Antwerp:

Whereas, We are told there has been a marked increase in juvenile delinquency during recent months, and

Whereas, Much of this increase is claimed to be due to the inadequacy of existing channels affording expression to our children, and

Whereas, Due to strict enforcement of our liquor control regulations which should continue, teen age youths are denied access to establishments where they have opportunity to dance, because these establishments are primarily liquor dispensaries, and

Whereas, The initiation of public dances throughout the City regularly held under the Department of Parks and Recreation and providing good dance music in pleasant surroundings would fill a gap now apparent in our social program, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Commissioners of Parks and Recreation are hereby requested to promptly submit a program embracing young people's dances to be held every evening, with attractive music and surroundings, and
