RESOLUTIONS

By Councilman Miriani:

Whereas, Earl J. Hudson, President of the United Detroit Theatres since 1938, is leaving Detroit on March 18, 1953 to take the position of Vice President of the Western Division American Broadcasting Company, and will be honored with a testimonial banquet sponsored by the Variety Club on March 16th; and

Whereas, Earl J. Hudson has earned the regard of the people of Detroit for his interest in community affairs, his active participation in civic enterprises, his promotion of all things which reflected favorably on our City, whether industrial or cultural; his unflinching response to the needs of the unfortunate and afflicted; and

Whereas, Earl J. Hudson served with distinction as a member of the Streets and Traffic Commission, the Board of Street Railway Commissioners and the city retirement committee; and contributed generously of his talents and his means to the Michigan Cancer Foundation and American Cancer Society; the United Foundation Torch Drive, the United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan; the United Cerebral Palsy Association; and the Civic Light Opera Association of Detroit, to name but a few; and

Whereas, Earl J. Hudson conceived the idea of dramatizing Detroit's greatness in a series of motion pictures titled "Detroiters—Let's Tell the World";
