Honorable Common Council:
Gentlemen—You forwarded to this office a communication from C. Katherine Rentschler, Home-Owner Civic and Improvement Associations, protesting certain budget appropriations for the Northeast Airport, the same being bond items which it is claimed require a vote of the people under the City Charter.

Permit me to advise that under the State law and the Charter, bonds authorized in the annual budget do not require a vote of the people, provided there exists sufficient statutory or charter authority for the issuance of such bonds.

We find no specific statutory or charter authority authorizing general obligations bonds of the city for this purpose without a vote of the electorate. Thus, under existing law, in addition to Council authority, such bonds must be submitted to referendum.

Respectfully submitted,
PAUL T. DWYER,
Corporation Counsel.
