Department of Police

August 31, 1973

Honorable Common Council:

Subject: Adjusted Overtime Authorization for Personnel Assigned to the Police Accounting Division.

On March 13, 1973, J.C.C. p. 593, your Honorable Body approved overtime over fifty hours for several of the staff in our Accounting Office because of the backlog in timekeeping records for police officers.

The resolution authorized that three employees not exceed a total of 150 hours straight for the fiscal year 1972-73. At this time, we must petition your Honorable Body because one of our employees exceeded the 150 hour limitation.

Therefore, we are requesting your Honorable Body's approval to increase the number of overtime hours authorized to one hundred sixty-one hours and thirty-five minutes straight hours for one person in the Accounting Office so that the matter of overtime in the office for fiscal year 1972-73 may be settled.

Respectfully submitted,
STANLEY C. RICH
Deputy Commissioner

Resolved, That where payment in cash for overtime over 50 hours is requested by the department, said payment will be made only with additional approval of the Controller through use of the Personnel Letter procedure; and be it further

Honorable Common Council:

Re: Petition No. 6149, Todd-Phillips Children's Home, Inc., Change Petition from Vacation of an Alley to Conversion to an Easement.

On July 24, 1973, J.C.C. Pages 1932-1933, your Honorable Body granted the petition (6149) of Todd-Phillips Children's Home, Inc., to vacate the alley in the block bounded by Woodrow Wilson, Lodge Freeway, Burlingame and Webb Avenues.

However, when the various City departments and private utility companies were contacted, it was necessary for the petitioner to amend his petition to a conversion of the alley to a public utility easement.

These provisions were omitted from the resolution adopted by your Honorable Body.

It will be necessary to adopt a resolution which rescinds the original resolution and includes the easement provisions.

An appropriate resolution is attached for consideration by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully submitted,
CLARENCE C. RUSSELL
Commissioner

Re: Petition No. 5406, Cunningham's Drug Stores, Inc., Vacation of the east-west alley first north of Bagley between Wabash and Vermont.

The above petition requests the vacation of the above described alley. The requested vacation was recommended by the City Plan Commission with the further recommendation that sufficient land be dedicated for a new outlet in Vermont Avenue.
