

October 19th, 2016

To: The City of Detroit

From: Ron Cooley, Corktown Business Association

Re: Corktown Sculpture from Hatch Detroit

Please accept this note as a one of support to place the Corktown sculpture created by the Detroit Design Center on the median on Michigan Avenue and 14th Street.

This sculpture is a donation from Hatch Detroit and Strategic Staffing Solutions, and will serve as an icon to welcome residents and visitors to Corktown. The sculpture is another piece in our efforts to make the Corktown Business Corridor visually and functionally appealing to all who come to our community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Ron Cooley'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Ron Cooley
Corktown Business Association

October 19th, 2016

To: The City of Detroit

From: Ron Cooley, Corktown Business Association

Re: Corktown Sculpture from Hatch Detroit

Please accept this note as a one of support to place the Corktown sculpture created by the Detroit Design Center on the median on Michigan Avenue and 14th Street.

This sculpture is a donation from Hatch Detroit and Strategic Staffing Solutions, and will serve as an icon to welcome residents and visitors to Corktown. The sculpture is another piece in our efforts to make the Corktown Business Corridor visually and functionally appealing to all who come to our community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ron Cooley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Ron Cooley
Corktown Business Association