INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM FOURTH PRECINCT

Date

November 3, 2016

To: Deputy Chief Charles Fitzgerald, Neighborhood Policing Bureau- West (Through Channels)

Subject: NPB – WEST PETITION #1309

From: NPO Thomas Denmark, badge 398, Fourth Precinct

On Friday, October 28, 2016, I received Petition #1309, I was also instructed to check the neighboring locations to get feedback from the citizens that live in this area and place their information in my report. The petitioner, Mrs. Caroline Stackhouse, is requesting a conversion to easement of the alley behind her property. The property is located at 2110 Electric Ave. Detroit MI, 48217.

On Saturday, October 29, 2016, at approximately 10:00 AM, I canvassed the location and received feedback from some of the residents in the area. I also observed sections of the alley that have not been maintained and full of overgrowth. There is also a garage that lead out to this alley. I made the location of 2100 Electric Ave. and spoke to Ruth Hudson (313)682-6312, who stated she does not object to the alley being closed behind Mrs. Stackhouse property, but she would like the alley behind her property to remain open.

On Sunday, October 30, 2016, at approximately 11:00 AM, I spoke with Mrs. Irene Sanders of 2275 Edsel (313)388-5102, who stated she had no objections to the closing of this alley. I also spoke with Mrs. Stackhouse who stated she is only requesting to close the portion of the alley that is located directly behind her property and not the entire alley.

My investigation revealed that the petition was filed in error. The alley behind Electric Ave. and Edsel Ave. between Downing Ave. and Miami Ave. would impose on the rest of the residents that live in this area. I recommend that petition #1309 be denied at this time.
