Re: Closure of Alley request
For: 18989 Hubbell St, Detroit, MI 48226

Dear Honorable City Council,

My name is Darnell Kendricks I am the proud 15 year owner of my home at 18989 Hubbell St. I am requesting closure of the alley next to my home (between Hubbell and Marlowe) as soon as possible.

Over my 15 years of living here this alley continues to be a source of concern for my safety, property value, and wellbeing.

I pick up at least 15 liquor bottles every 6 weeks or so and all types of trash and debris (See photos A,B,D, and E)

Furthermore graffiti has been painted all over the back side of the 7mile Cleaners and Holbrooks Auto Shop (See photos A and D)

One of the most concerning issues is the car and foot traffic and the many people that go to the alley simply to urinate (See photos F and C)

Gentlemen in photo F, I happen to be pulling up to my home as he was waking to hide to shield himself from the street to urinate and I caught the photo as he was walking out of the alley and greeted with a mean stare (for obvious reasons)

Photo C, I was in my home unable to get out quick enough, however this gentlemen urinated and exited the other end of the alley. These are captures of two different sunny days we happen to have within the last few weeks. You can only imagine the number of these incidents that happen daily.

I respectfully ask you grant me the necessary information and to close this alley for a little more peace of mind.

Thank You

Darnell Kendricks
