AN ORDINANCE to license and regulate the sale of near-beer, so called, and to provide certain conditions under which it may be sold in the City of Detroit.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF DETROIT.

Section 1. No person, firm or corporation shall maintain or conduct a near-beer saloon, so called, within the limits of the City of Detroit without first having obtained a license from the Mayor.

Sec. 2. A near-beer saloon, for the purposes of this ordinance, is defined as any room, place or building used for the purpose of selling near-beer, so called.

Sec. 3. Every person, firm or corporation desiring to engage in the business of conducting a near-beer saloon shall make application in writing to the Mayor for the license for that purpose stating the street and number or location of the place where such business is to be carried on.

Sec. 4 (a) The Mayor is hereby authorized to issue said license upon making of the application as aforesaid or to refuse to issue said license, or to revoke same, if upon satisfactory proof that the applicant has been convicted of violating any law of this State, the United States, or ordinances of this City in reference to the sale of intoxicating liquors, or has violated any of the terms of this ordinance, or has been convicted of any felony, or if the Mayor shall, upon investigation, obtain information from any reliable source, which shows that the applicant is not the proper person or persons to conduct said business.

(b) The Mayor shall refer all applications for revocation of said licenses to the Commissioner of Police who shall investigate or cause to be investigated each application or petition to determine whether the applicant or licensee has been convicted of violating any of the laws of this State, the United States or ordinances of this City, with reference to the sale of intoxicating liquors, or whether such applicant or licensee has been convicted of any felony, and to determine if there are any other facts which would tend to show that the applicant or licensee is not a proper person to conduct said business. The Commissioner of Police shall furnish to the Mayor in writing the information obtained from such investigation, accompanied by a recommendation as to whether the license should be granted, refused, revoked or renewed, as the case may be.

Sec. 5. The Mayor shall not issue any license to any person, firm or corporation under the provisions of this ordinance unless the person or members of the firm or officers of the corporation applying for the license are citizens of the United States.

Sec. 6. The fee for such license shall be $1.00. Such license when issued shall state the street number or location of the place of business as designated in the application. No license issued as aforesaid shall remain in force and effect beyond the first day of April after the issuance of same.

Sec. 7. The Mayor shall not issue a license under the provisions of this ordinance to any person to maintain a near-beer saloon, so called, upon any place or property, where, upon said place or property, any person has been convicted of manufacturing, selling, keeping for sale, giving away, bartering, storing or possessing, furnishing or otherwise disposing of any vinous, malt, brewed, fermented, spirituous or intoxicating liquors, or any mixed liquors or beverages, any part of which is intoxicating, contrary to any law of this State or of the United States, unless the owner of said place or building shall file with the City Clerk a surety bond running to the City of Detroit in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars the surety to be approved by the Mayor, conditioned that the premises shall not be kept, maintained or used for the manufacture, sale, keeping for sale, giving away, bartering, storing or possessing, furnishing or otherwise disposing of any vinous, malt, brewed, fermented, spirituous or intoxicating liquors, contrary to any law of this State or of the United States, for a period of one year therefrom.

Sec. 8. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisonment in the De-
