To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—For your information and in order that it may appear in the Council proceedings as a matter of record, please be advised that under date of September 24, 1930 there were filed in my office by the Secretary of State, three petitions proposing the following annexations:

1. The annexation of East Detroit, Macomb County, Michigan, to the city of Detroit.
2. The annexation of a portion of Warren Township, Macomb County, Michigan, directly north of the 8 Mile Road, to the city of Detroit.
3. The annexation of the district known as Hazel Park, being a portion of Royal Oak Township, Oakland County, Michigan, to the city of Detroit.

Under the Statutes it is required that these three annexation propositions be submitted to the electors at the regular election scheduled for November 4, 1930.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD W. READING,
City Clerk.

Accepted and placed on file.
