From the Controller November 24, 1931

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—In the 1929-30 report an appropriation to be made for the construction of boat wells at Memorial Park. A contract was entered into between the City of Detroit and Lennane and McIlvanna for the construction thereof in the amount of $249,000.00. Mr. Edw. Gray in the Circuit Court the other day City to construct these boat wells. The Circuit Court issued a permanent injunction restraining the City of Detroit and Lennane and McIlvanna from proceeding with the construction work. Therefore, may I request the Honorable Body to adopt a resolution cancelling the existing contract with Lennane and McIlvanna and to cancel the appropriation for the project.

Respectfully submitted, G. HALL ROOSEVELT
