By Councilman Lodge:

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the payment of one-half of all salaries or compensation of all officers and employes of the City of Detroit during May and June of 1932.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF DETROIT

Section 1. That from and after 2 May 1st, 1932, every officer or employe of the City of Detroit including the Department of Water Supply and all persons whose salary, compensation or per diem pay are included in the City budget shall contribute to the City of Detroit a sufficient number of days work each pay period, but without pay therefor, so that the amount of such contribution will equal one-half of his or her salary reduced by ordinance 146-C entitled "An Ordinance relative to the payment of salaries of all officers and employes of the City of Detroit" and that a like one-half contribution shall be required of all per diem employes of the City not included in said ordinance. Provided, That such contributions shall in no event result in any employe receiving less than Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars per week. Each department head or person making up payrolls shall distribute such contributions as nearly as may be equally over each pay period and in such manner as details as the Controller shall determine.

Sec. 2. In the event that any elective officer or officer appointed for a term of years shall be entitled to full compensation by reason of any constitutional, statutory or charter provision, the Controller shall nevertheless receive any voluntary contribution by such officer on the same percentage set forth in Section 1 hereof, and refusal on the part of any officer to make such contribution and to insist upon his legal rights shall not in any manner invalidate any other provisions of this ordinance but the compensation of any subsequent incumbent of any such office shall be subject to the provisions of this ordinance. In no event shall such officer or employe receive more than his pro rata share of tax collections.

Sec. 3. If any officer or employe of the City of Detroit cept such persons specified in Section 2 hereof) shall refuse or fail to make such voluntary contribution of time as specified herein, then this ordinance shall be construed and it is intended as a compulsory reduction of his or her salary or per diem compensation or pay on the basis of the percentages outlined in Section 1 hereof.

Sec. 4. The Common Council hereby requests that the Board of Education and Board of Library Commissioners (since the taxpayers supporting same are identical with those of the City of Detroit and whose respective budgets constitute a part of the consolidated municipal budget of Seventy-six Million, Twenty-nine Thousand, Five Hundred Thirteen and 26/100 Dollars) each adopt resolutions or ordinances of like effect as this ordinance, to the end that a fair and equal proportionate contribution towards the Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000.00) Dollars deficit may be made by all officers and employes of each municipal corporation.

Sec. 5. There is hereby declared to be a public emergency involving the peace, health or safety of the people of the City of Detroit and the municipality and it is ordered that this ordinance shall be given immediate effect and shall continue in effect until June 30th, 1932, unless sooner repealed.

Sec. 6. "All ordinances, resolutions or parts of ordinances or resolutions or budget provisions inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, amended or supplemented as herein provided.

Approved as to form:

CLARENCE E. WILCOX,
Corporation Counsel.

Read twice by title.

Councilman Lodge then moved that the ordinance is an emergency measure that it be placed on the order of third reading.

The ordinance was then placed on the order of third reading.

Third Reading of Ordinance.

The title to the ordinance was read a third time.

The ordinance was then read.

The question being "Shall this ordinance now pass," the ordinance having the emergency clause did not pass as follows:

Yeas—Councilmen Bradley, Hall, Lindsay, Lodge and the President—5.

Nays—Councilmen Castator, Jeffries, Smith, and Van Antwerp—4.

Councilman Lodge then moved that the vote by which the ordinance was not passed be reconsidered, which motion prevailed as follows:

Yeas—Councilmen Bradley, Castator, Hall, Jeffries, Lindsay, Lodge, Smith, Van Antwerp and the President—9.

Nays—None.

Councilman Lodge then moved that the ordinance lie on the table, which motion prevailed.

Councilman Smith was called to the chair.

Councilman Couzens moved that the City Controller be given the privilege of the floor, which motion prevailed.

The Controller addressed the council with reference to the financial condition of the City of Detroit, and the matter of salaries, and stated that under the charter it would be necessary to pay employees of departments which had money derived from revenue.

By Councilman Bradley:

WHEREAS, a distinguished clergyman, educator and citizen of Detroit has been called from the scene of his earthly labors by untimely death, in the person of the Very Reverend John P. McNichols, President of the University of Detroit since 1921; and

WHEREAS, during his career in this city Father McNichols has justly earned the esteem and admiration of his fellow-citizens by his planning and realization of an entire new University Center for the institution of which he has been the head; has raised standards of scholarship; has increased the opportunities for varied professional education in the city; and has, in addition to the manifold duties of his office, joyously participated in every community effort for good, be it

RESOLVED by the Common Council of the City of Detroit that it hereby officially acknowledges the great service which Father McNichols' career has been to this city and its deep regret at its untimely termination; and that it extends the institution of which he has been the head, his associates in the faculties thereof and the student bodies of which he has been the leader, the deepest sympathy of the community; and it orders this expression spread upon the record of its proceedings, and be it further

RESOLVED that as a further mark of respect we do now adjourn.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Councilmen Bradley, Castator,
