From the City Treasurer

March 20, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Due to the fact that the First National and Guardian Detroit Banks have been closed for some time, it has been impossible for this office to clear checks received in payment of taxes. We have postponed action on this matter, thinking every day that the banks would reopen. However, the situation is still involved, and the privilege of complete banking facilities denied us.

I am informed by Mr. Fred Talbot, Executive Vice-President of Commonwealth Commercial Bank, that his organization will be pleased to handle the City of Detroit checking account, and I therefore ask that your Honorable Body kindly authorize and direct the City Controller to enter into a contract with the Commonwealth Commercial Bank, for the handling of City funds. This recommendation is made after consultation with Mr. Dwyer in the Corporation Counsel's Office.

This matter is urgent, and I will appreciate your early attention.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. L. WILLIAMS,
 City Treasurer.

By Councilman Hall:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into contract with the Commonwealth Commercial Bank for the handling of city funds in accordance with the foregoing communication.
