

Recorder's Court

February 14, 1938.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—We herewith petition your Honorable Body to authorize the City Controller to transfer the sum of $3,000.00 from available funds to our 2-C, Account as the appropriation for the purpose of the purchase of printing supplies, etc., has been depleted.

When estimating our requirements for the current budget, no consideration was given by us to the Kreml system of traffic enforcement which was made effective some time after the budget had been approved and closed. The Kreml plan has increased our expense for printing and supplies over one-third.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM E. COHAN,
Chief Deputy Clerk.

Approved:

J. N. DALEY,
Controller.

By Councilman Ewald:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the sum of $3,000.00 from Revenue Account in the Recorder's Court Fund to be placed to the credit of Account 2-C, Printing, Stationery, Supplies, Legal Books in the same fund.
