This statement reflects the usual accounting practices of the Company on the basis of item figures, as shown by the books of the Company and its subsidiaries, and is subject to audit. The accruals for Federal In-Taxes were $3,216,000.00 for the months ending January 31, and $5,735,000.00 for the twelve months ending January 31, 1942. No provision was made for excess profits tax for the period of 1940 as the Commission believes no such taxes were levied by it under the Second Revenue Act of 1940. The accruals for the periods in 1941 and 1942 are deemed to be adequate for Federal income and excess profits taxes under the Revenue Act of 1941, now in effect and placed on file.
